

IATA

WORLD CARGO

SYMPOSIUM

Istanbul, Türkiye
25-27 April 2023

Focus on Türkiye

Kindly Sponsored by:

TURKISH CARGO

IATAWORLD CARGO*SYMPOSIUM*Focus on Türkiye*Thursday, 27 April

Time	Session Information
09:00 – 09:20	Opening Hasan Hatipoğlu, General Manager Türkiye, Moldova & Romania, Lufthansa Cargo The impact of the earthquake demanded quick action to get much needed relief goods from all over the globe to the affected communities. In this session we will investigate how Türkiye, as a major cargo hub, enabled the logistics industry to react quickly and deliver much need support goods and materials under extremely challenging conditions.
09:20 – 09:50	Rise to becoming a major Cargo Hub with state-of-the-art handling facilities Dr. Murat Yalçın Kırca, VP Global Cargo Operations, Turkish Airlines This session will showcase how the right investment into Infrastructure and operational procedures has grown Türkiye to one of the most strategic cargo hubs on the globe
09:50 – 10:15	Adaptability and Resilience in Cargo Handling Operations Christopher Licht, Managing Director, Celebi Cargo Speed of adapting handling processes and close collaboration with Governments and Airlines are key in cargo operations, especially under challenging conditions
10:15 – 10:35	The Final Mile under challenging conditions Turgut Erkeskin, President & CEO, Genel Transport Collaboration and ingenuity: How the Turkish Freight Forwarding community demonstrated perseverance and excellency despite severe disruptions of ground infrastructure and the lessons learned to build guidance for future events
10:35 – 10:50	Relief impact through Collaboration & Partnership Cindy Rocha, Associate Director, Strategic Partnerships, Airlink A portrait of the relief impact and how the transportation industry's collaborative efforts made a difference to the people in need
10:50 – 11:00	Closing Remarks Dr. Murat Yalçın Kırca, VP Global Cargo Operations, Turkish Airlines
11:00 - 11:30	Networking Break - WCS Exhibition Hall
11:30 – 13:00	WCS Closing Plenary