

Your Cargo 2000 Membership includes...

Capability

- Full Participation in The Industry Quality System for Air Cargo
- Full Process and Technical supporting documentation
- A choice of turnkey CDMP services or the option to build your own
- A Broad based technical working group to resolve issues and lead improvement and innovation
- A Dedicated Management Team to support your evaluation, development and ongoing implementation

Connectivity

- Immediate connectivity with most of the major Airlines and Forwarders around the globe

Your Cargo 2000 Membership includes...

Comparability

- Monthly performance updates including benchmark data showing how you are performing against others using like for like data
- A structured Audit programme to validate your performance against the same criteria as all other members

Community

- Participation in setting the direction and goals of the group
- Bi-annual meetings to discuss quality issues with peers and customers
- Access to 29 Local association groups at key airfreight destinations to jointly address quality barriers and promote quality improvement
- Access to our on-line data repository and information exchange web site, and coming soon online training

Your Cargo 2000 Membership includes...

Visibility

- Exposure to the trade press and shippers as an integral part of this unique industry initiative
- Regularly featured at exhibitions and conferences

Alignment

- Through our Industry Associates and cooperation with other industry groups Cargo 2000 promotes strategic and practical developments that ensure your quality system remains current and relevant within an industry context.