

. 2 0 1 8 .

12th WORLD CARGO
SYMPOSIUM

1 3 - 1 5 M a r c h

DALLAS, TEXAS

Live Animals Track

Live Animals Track Summary - Love is in the Air Cargo when transporting Live Animals

This half day track will provide the attendees with the current challenges and concerns surrounding animal transportation, and offer to discuss future opportunities in facilitating effective operations while ensuring animal welfare through existing best practices and case studies, where appropriate.

14:00 – 14:05	Chairman Opening Remarks Bruce Clemmons, Manager, FedEx Live Animal Desk, FedEx
14:05 - 14:15	Welcome Address John E. Scanlon, Secretary-General, CITES
14:15 - 14:45	Keynote Address The importance of industry collaboration in fields of mutual interest to raise awareness and improve transport conditions of live animals worldwide.
14:45 – 15:30	Panel and Interactive Discussions Dealing with compliance and complexity: How to ensure live animals are transported safely, humanly and in compliance with the existing Regulations? Improving industry logistics networks to achieve supply chain excellence increasingly requires transparency and cooperation amongst all supply chain partners to provide the high quality services customers demand to ultimately safeguard animal welfare.
15:30 - 16:15	Networking Break
16:15 - 16:45	How can upcoming technology help live animals transportation?
16:45 – 17:20	Liability and insurance issues arising in relation to the carriage of live animals by air? What is the legal framework and the current problems faced by the cargo insurance industry when dealing with transport of live animals?
17:20 – 17:30	Chairman Closing Remarks Bruce Clemmons, Manager, FedEx Live Animal Desk, FedEx

