

Simplifying the business for travel agents

TRAVEL AGENT SERVICE FEE (TASF)

fast. easy. reliable.

Faced with greater challenges in today's business climate, the travel agent community requires a simplified and efficient mechanism to collect their service fees.

The IATA Travel Agent Service Fee (TASF) offers a convenient solution. The TASF service enables IATA accredited travel agencies to process their service fees on clients' credit cards, facilitating fee collection and reconciliation through IATA's BSP system.

TASF Benefits

- Simplifies the service fee collection process
- Enables payments to be made through credit cards, including Visa, MasterCard, American Express, Diners Club and UATP
- Allows agents without merchant agreements to process service fees on client credit cards
- Offers competitive credit card rates
- Streamlines transactions via integration with the agency's ticketing process, saving valuable time and money
- Centralises service fee information
- Provides flexible reporting of TASF service fees through BSPlink (in ASCII and TXT format), easily downloaded into agency accounting systems

Preferred Rates

IATA TASF has negotiated with credit card institutions to ensure agents using the service within the same country can benefit from the most competitive rates.
