Would you like to pack your experience and knowledge into an international diploma?

Over 800 aviation professionals a year participate in IATA security training, globally. IATA Training will update, skill you up and give you the best practices in aviation security.

www.iata.org/training-security

IATA can offer you advice, guidance, support, all the latest regulatory information and great opportunities to network and expand your expertise.

www.iata.org/security

Aviation industry INVESTS over $7bn per year...

A SOLUTION FOR EVERY SECURITY CONCERN

Have you recently experienced a security audit? Are you looking to improve your performance and boost customer satisfaction at your airport?

93% of passengers are happy with security screening measures

IATA Consulting will help you enhance your aviation security delivery, improve customer satisfaction, maximize your security investment and apply recommended best practice.

www.iata.org/consulting

Do you wonder what the future of aviation security might bring?

Join over 500 industry experts at AVSEC World

Exchange ideas and drive initiatives to identify and manage current and future challenges through collaboration, coordination and communication.

www.iata.org/avsec

Is aviation security embedded from top to bottom in your organization?

Security is not just checkpoints; build an aviation security culture in all operational activities as well as in management.

The revamped Security Manual covers 8 key aviation security elements to build a comprehensive security program.

www.iata.org/security-manual

Woud you like to pack your experience and knowledge into an international diploma?

Over 800 aviation professionals a year participate in IATA security training, globally. IATA Training will update, skill you up and give you the best practices in aviation security.

www.iata.org/training-security

Participating in industry meetings pertaining to security can help improve your business

Several committees and working groups are organized for your benefit

Become a strategic partner and stay informed of the hot topics and the industry’s security priorities.

www.iata.org/sp

Are your essential IT systems at risk?

30,000 cyber-attacks occur each day, is your critical IT system protected?

The IATA Cyber Security Toolkit allows you to make your own robust risk assessments and provides guidance for the implementation of a cyber security management system.

www.iata.org/cyber-security

IATA can offer you advice, guidance, support, all the latest regulatory information and great opportunities to network and expand your expertise.

www.iata.org/security

Aviation industry INVESTS over $7bn per year...

A SOLUTION FOR EVERY SECURITY CONCERN

Have you recently experienced a security audit? Are you looking to improve your performance and boost customer satisfaction at your airport?

93% of passengers are happy with security screening measures

IATA Consulting will help you enhance your aviation security delivery, improve customer satisfaction, maximize your security investment and apply recommended best practice.

www.iata.org/consulting

Do you wonder what the future of aviation security might bring?

Join over 500 industry experts at AVSEC World

Exchange ideas and drive initiatives to identify and manage current and future challenges through collaboration, coordination and communication.

www.iata.org/avsec

Is aviation security embedded from top to bottom in your organization?

Security is not just checkpoints; build an aviation security culture in all operational activities as well as in management.

The revamped Security Manual covers 8 key aviation security elements to build a comprehensive security program.

www.iata.org/security-manual

Woud you like to pack your experience and knowledge into an international diploma?

Over 800 aviation professionals a year participate in IATA security training, globally. IATA Training will update, skill you up and give you the best practices in aviation security.

www.iata.org/training-security

Participating in industry meetings pertaining to security can help improve your business

Several committees and working groups are organized for your benefit

Become a strategic partner and stay informed of the hot topics and the industry’s security priorities.

www.iata.org/sp

Are your essential IT systems at risk?

30,000 cyber-attacks occur each day, is your critical IT system protected?

The IATA Cyber Security Toolkit allows you to make your own robust risk assessments and provides guidance for the implementation of a cyber security management system.

www.iata.org/cyber-security