Handling the Inadmissible Person's Removal

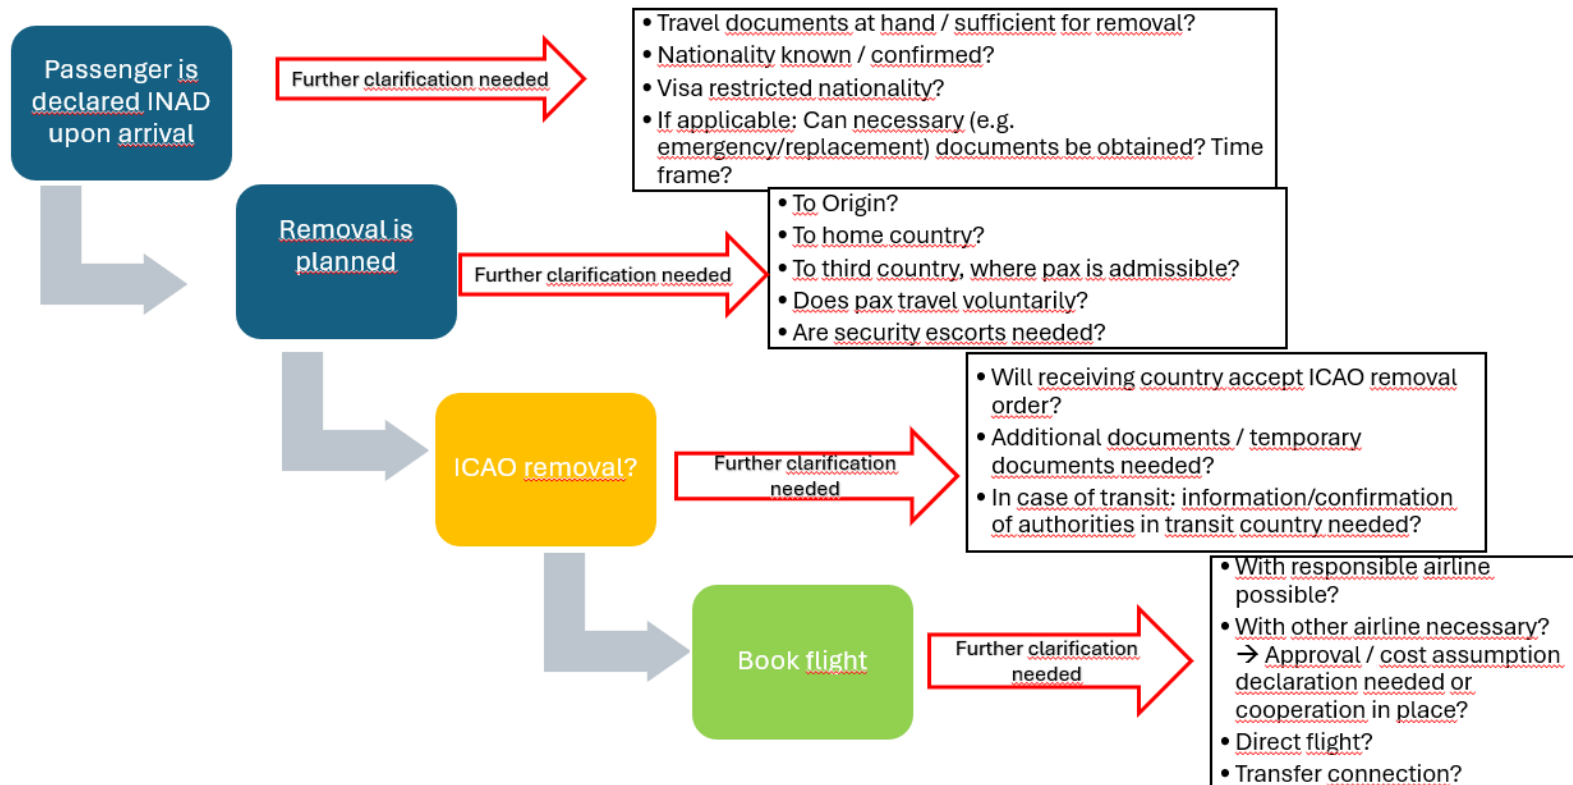

- INAD removals are daily business, but still have challenges concerning
 - Passenger's documentation: travel documents not sufficient or not available
 - Passenger's nationality in regards of travel restrictions
 - Incoming flights: travel on only one leg or several flights of different airlines
 - Responsible airline: is own network sufficient or must other airline be involved
 - Removal to which country?
 - Removal via other countries?

The following flow chart shows at which points further clarifications are needed.

Close cooperation between removing authority, responsible and – if applicable – removing (OAL) airline is crucial.

Sufficient time to organize the removal must be granted!
