Regulatory Stream

Wednesday,10 March 2027

09h00 – 09h05 Opening Remarks

09h05 – 09h35 Keynote Address
One System, One Risk: Safety and Security in a Changing World
Global air cargo depends on a single interconnected system where security failures become safety failures, and where resilience depends on international cooperation, trusted standards, and collective action.

09h35 – 10h30 Panel Discussion: Combined Risks, Coordinated Solutions
As trade, technology and threats evolve, the challenge is no longer maintaining the system we have built, but shaping the trusted, resilient and globally connected cargo network of the future. This panel will explore the problems of unlawful cargo and how coordinated approaches, enhanced information sharing and innovation can deliver more effective solutions.

10h30 – 11h30 NETWORKING BREAK – WCS Exhibition Hall

11h30 – 12h30 Spotlight 1: E-Commerce

12h30 – 14h00 LUNCH BREAK – WCS Exhibition Hall

14h00 – 15h00 Spotlight 2: Operations:
Panel Discussion: Harmonization of Safety and Security in Air Cargo and Mail

15h00 – 16h00 NETWORKING BREAK – WCS Exhibition Hall

16h00 – 16h20 Navigating New Realities: Safety and Security for the Next Era of Air Cargo
As global risks become increasingly interconnected, aviation must strengthen its ability to anticipate, withstand and recover from events that challenge the integrity of international air cargo operations.

16h00 – 17h20 Panel Discussion: From Words to Action – Delivering Truly Risk-Based Air Cargo Security and Safety
This panel will examine what must change to move from broad discussion and policy commitments to practical action. The discussion will identify tangible steps that States, regulators, airlines and the wider air cargo supply chain must take to deliver security that is proportionate, adaptable and focused on the risks that matter most.

17h20 – 17h30 Closing Remarks

18h30 – 22h00 WCS GALA DINNER
