COVID-19: SIS Monthly Update

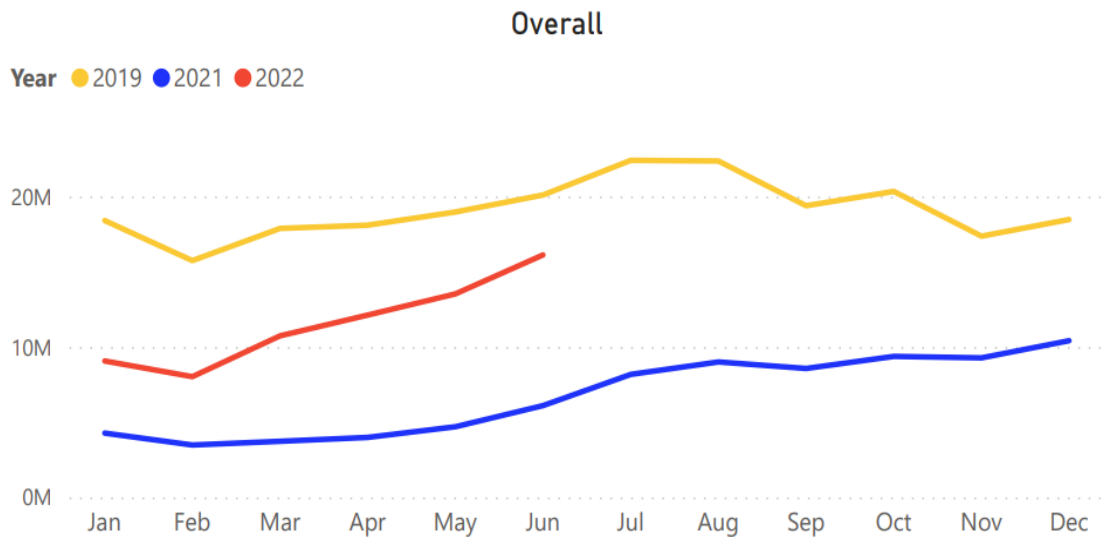

June 2022

COVID-19: SIS Monthly Update

Dear SIS Participants,

Welcome to the June update of the COVID-19 SIS Update. As the pent up demand for international travel begins to continue to materialize, Passenger transactions show strong signs of recovery.

The number of transactions processed in June increased by 19% compared to last month. Comparing to previous years, we observe a 164% increase compared to June 2021 and a 20% difference compared to June 2019. YTD values are 165% higher compared to 2021 and 36% lower compared to 2019.

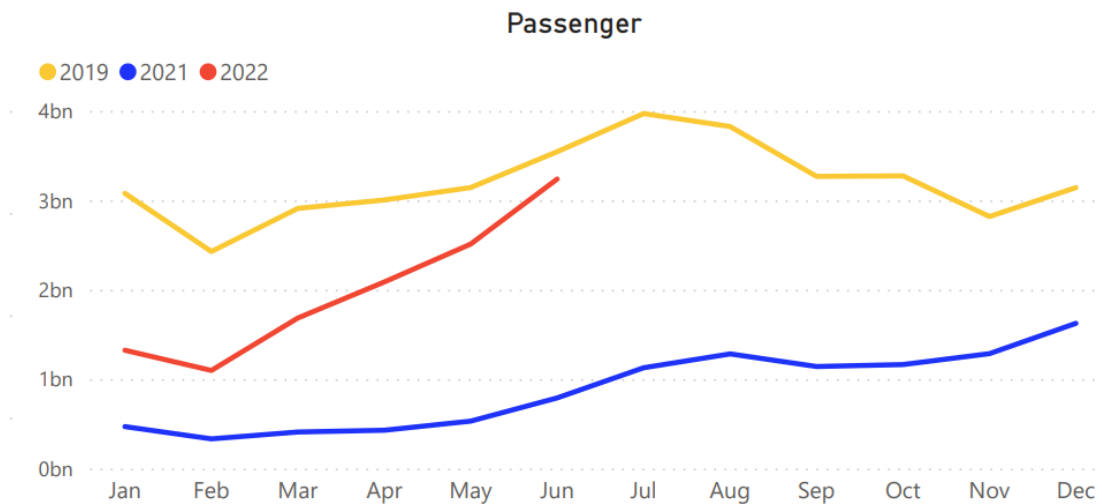

Number of SIS Transactions YTD (2019 vs 2021 vs 2022)

Overall Invoice Counts see strong growth of 8.12% compared to May 2022. Focusing on the Passenger category, we see gains of 9.3% compared to May 2022. Comparing the Passenger category to other months, we see a 57% increase compared to June 2021 and a 32% difference compared to June 2019. YTD values are 46% higher compared to 2021 and 40% lower compared to 2019.

Overall USD values continue to experience massive increases as Passenger transaction values see a 29% increase compared to May 2022. Comparing to previous years, Passenger Transaction values increased 309.5% compared to June 2021 and see a difference of 8.6% compared to June 2019. YTD values are 303% higher compared to 2021 and 34% lower compared to 2019

USD Value (2019 vs 2021 vs 2022)

Overall, all regions besides observed large increases in USD values processed compared to last month. This can be attributed to the massive increases in USD values in the Passenger category
