COVID-19: SIS Monthly Update

May 2022

COVID-19: SIS Monthly Update

Dear SIS Participants,

Welcome to the May update of the COVID-19 SIS Update. As the pent up demand for international travel begins to materialize, Passenger transactions show strong signs of recovery.

The number of transactions processed in May increased by 11% compared to last month. Comparing to previous years, we observe a 188% increase compared to May 2021 and a 28% difference compared to May 2019. YTD values are 165% higher compared to 2021 and 39% lower compared to 2019.

Number of SIS Transactions YTD (2019 vs 2021 vs 2022)

Overall Invoice Counts see minor growth of 1.2% compared to April 2022. Focusing on the Passenger category, we see gains of 4.4% compared to April 2022. Comparing the Passenger category to other months, we see a 52% increase compared to May 2021 and a 38% difference compared to 2019. YTD values are 43% higher compared to 2021 and 42% lower compared to 2019.

Overall USD values continue to experience massive increases as Passenger transaction values see a 20% increase compared to April 2022. Comparing to previous years, Passenger Transaction values increased 372% compared to May 2021 and see a difference of 20% compared to May 2019. YTD values are 294% higher compared to 2021 and 42% lower compared to 2019

USD Value (2019 vs 2021 vs 2022)

Overall, all regions besides North Asia observed increases in USD values processed compared to last month. This can be attributed to the massive increases in USD values in the Passenger category.
