

Live Animals Track

TURKISH CARGO

Wednesday 13th March 2019
14:00 – 17:30

Live Animals Track Summary:

This half day track will provide the attendees with the current challenges and concerns surrounding animal welfare in transportation and handling. This track will offer the opportunity to discuss future solutions in facilitating effective operations while ensuring animal welfare and safety through existing best practices and case studies.

14:00 – 14:20	Chairman Opening Remarks Filip Vande Cappelle, President ATA & President / Founder European Horse Services & EIE
14:20 – 15:00	Keynote Speech Regulatory Perspective - Addressing Non-Compliance in the Transport of Live Animals <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Dr Chua Tze Hoong, Group Director Quarantine and Inspection Group - Agri-Food & Veterinary Authority of Singapore - Shella Mae Forro-Martorillas, Senior Executive Manager Quarantine and Inspection Group - Agri-Food & Veterinary Authority of Singapore
15:00 - 15:30	Challenges and Opportunity in handling and transporting Live Animals Sean Harding, President of Business Development, Biotrans LLC
15:30 - 16:15	Networking Break
16:15 - 16:55	Bringing e-Commerce in the transport of live animals Entrepreneurs deploying innovative solutions to ensure the safe, secure and welfare of the animals as well as compliance with the regulatory requirements while avoiding financial scams and building reliable industry partnership to ensure compliance partners. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Jaryd Koenigsmann, CEO & Founder, myNewPet - Simon Jackson, CEO, Dogtainers
16:55 – 17:25	Improving industry logistics networks to achieve supply chain excellence increasingly requires transparency and cooperation amongst all supply chain partners to provide the high quality services customers demand to ultimately safeguard animal welfare. A. Bahadır Büyükkaymaz, Special Cargo Manager, Turkish Cargo
17:25 – 17:30	Chairperson Closing Remarks Filip Vande Cappelle, President ATA & President / Founder European Horse Services & EIE

