

RIM25- Addressing the Day-to-Day Issues Faced by Airline Risk and Insurance Managers Globally in a Fast Changing and Unstable World

Preparedness, Resilience and Response

RIM seeks to support the airlines in all aspects of risk and risk transfer management. RIM topics are led by the airlines, and the need to be current, innovative and understand the airlines' needs.

RIM is the only meeting independent of any single broker, insurer, law firm etc. We have potential and actual access to all.

Agreed Topics for RIM25 (Deliberately no specific order)

1. Keynote

- Probably AI, or an airline person

2. Turbulence

- Panel
  - o Turbulence Aware, Climate expert, Lawyers on Passenger liability including psychological injury type claims PLUS ERP parties.

3. IATA SGHA

- An update following the meeting at IATA GVA, end of 2024

4. A4A An update

5. Sanctions - all aspects

6. What are the Greatest Threats to Global Air Transport

- How can we mitigate with greater agility.
  - o A panel of experts evaluate such threats from geopolitical to climate change, to cyber, to skills shortages - predictions and preparedness and potential mitigations.

7. Special Cyber Session: Is using human factors better than click bait?

8. A) War Coverage

- To include nuclear cancellation/contingent cover, government support (expert panel).

B) Overflights and landing in Russia (expert panel)

9. Global Legal Panel

- Each lawyer chooses an update useful to the airlines.

10. Leasing

- Ukraine/Russia - an update – panel

11. Safety Issues

- IATA – Mark Searle

12. Update on the International Aviation (Re)insurance Market

- An update by IUAI is being sought, If this is not possible – alternatives to be reviewed