Tuesday, 24 September  (showing confirmed speakers only)

14h15  Achieving Air Transport Sustainability – Part 1
Financing Renewable Energy Projects; does it need to be this hard?
How to bring a project to fruition? Where are the best opportunities and what are the challenges that need to be overcome? How to survive the Valley(s) of Death?
- Jimmy Samartzis, CEO, LanzaJet

Can airlines control their destiny?
What are airlines doing in terms of buying and investing in SAF? Showcasing one airline’s innovative venture.

Profitability and Risk - The investor dilemma
How can investing in renewable energy and SAF production be made more profitable? How can the risk be transferred and mutualised across stakeholders? And how to ensure that no region is left behind?

15h45  NETWORKING BREAK

16h15  Achieving Air Transport Sustainability – Part 2
Sustainable Aviation Fuel (SAF) Markets - Are we on track?
Increased SAF production is critical to decarbonizing aviation – how are we progressing? What are the trends in the SAF supply chain, project development, and partnerships? What are there most urgent gaps that need addressing?
- Andreea Moyes, Aviation Global Sustainability Director, Air bp
- Louise Burke, VP and Global Head of Aviation, Argus Media
- Robert Schuetzle, Chief Executive Officer, Infinium
- Sergey Paltsev, Director Energy at Scale Center, MIT
- Moderator: Jonathon Counsell, Group Head of Sustainability, IAG

Carbon Removals – gaining traction or elusive pipedream?
A spotlight on the current trends in Carbon Dioxide Removals (CDR). How will CDR help decarbonize aviation, who are the major market participants, and what is needed from policy makers and other stakeholders to support this solution going forward?
- Myles Allen, Professor of Geosystem Science, University of Oxford
- Moderated by Myrka Manzo, Director Environmental Compliance, Air Canada

Non-CO2: Knowns and unknowns
Aviation non-CO2 emissions and their climate impact are increasingly the focus of attention. What is the current state of understanding, what are the uncertainties, and what might the implications be for future aviation operations?
- Ulrike Burkhardt, Researcher, Institute for Atmospheric Physics, Oberpfaffenhofen, Germany

17h45  End of Day 1 Sessions

20h00  NETWORKING DINNER
Sponsored by AMERICAN AIRLINES
09h00  |  TRANSPARENCY & FINANCE TRACK
Balancing Finance, Investor, and Airline Information Needs; Mission Impossible?
- The demand for sustainability reporting and transparency is growing. But to what end? Do the benefits outweigh the costs? And can the differing information needs of key stakeholder groups be reconciled?
- Claudia Huegel, Sr. Director, Head of ESG Rating and Reporting, Lufthansa Group
- Alison O’Connor, VP Sustainability, Avolon
- Robert Korn, President and Co-Founder, Carlyle Aviation Partners
- Joe Shanahan, Group Head of Aviation, Citibank

10h45  |  POLICY & REGULATION TRACK
Paving a Pragmatic Future; Net Zero Carbon Policy Solutions
- The global landscape of SAF policies is rapidly evolving. What are the recent policy initiatives around the world and their underlying rationale? Can we make any initial assessment of their effectiveness?
  - Marcela Braga, Head of the International and Environmental Office, ANAC
  - Moderated by Fred Ghatala, Director for Carbon and Sustainability, Advanced Biofuels Canada

10h45  |  TECHNOLOGY, INNOVATION & OPERATIONS TRACK
New Aircraft Technologies - The Future of Flight?
- Hear about - and see - some of the exciting new (and dare we say ‘radical’?) developments which are revolutionizing air travel.
  - Ramy Mourad, Director of Engineering, Urban Air Mobility, Boeing
  - Val Miftakhov, CEO, Zeroavia
  - Moderated by Sophie Lane, Chief Relationships Officer, ATI

10h45  |  LEVERS FOR FINANCING THE TRANSITION
How to harness the available capital, optimize risk transfer, and capture the opportunities? What innovation is needed to finance the Net Zero transition?
- Niklas Lund, CEO/Partner, Rockton
- Nic Lawson, Head of Low Carbon Strategy, Mercuria

10h45  |  A COORDINATED POLICY APPROACH; TOO MUCH TO ASK?
Policy has a key role in the successful scale-up of SAF production and deployment. Is there a way to reconcile the varied policy needs and priorities of stakeholders across the value chain, or are we doomed to fend for ourselves?
- Cesar Souto, VP of Sustainability for Commercial Aviation, Embraer
- Nancy Young, CSO, Gevo
- Anna Stukas, VP Business Development, Carbon Engineering
- Moderated by Kevin Welsh, VP Environmental Affairs & Chief Sustainability Officer, A4A

10h45  |  IMPLEMENTING INNOVATION: PRACTICAL CONSIDERATIONS
Practical Considerations for Energy Transition
- Emma Whittlesea, Head of Partnerships, Stralis
- Matthieu Piron, Managing Director, Hydrogen Airport
- Marion Chivot, Director, ESG Strategy, Edmonton Airport
- Moderated by Naomi Allen, Head of Research, Royal Aeronautical Society
Wednesday, 25 September
