

Understanding Carbon Markets Insight & Application to Aviation

PRELIMINARY AGENDA

18 May 20 May

10h00	17h00	CORSIA Update <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Michel Adam, Assistant Director, Aviation Environment, IATA▪ Yue Huang, Manager, Aviation Environment, IATA
10h30	17h30	Latest Trends in the Voluntary Carbon Market The carbon market expert view on supply and demand of carbon credits, new offset instrument traded, and new trends identified. <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Rene Velasquez, Head, Global Markets CBL
11h00	18h00	Airline Carbon Market Talk Airlines sharing their very own experience when engaging with the carbon market. <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Stephanie Zhu, General Manager Sustainability, Delta Airlines (20 May)▪ David Young, Executive Manager Sustainability & Future Planet, Qantas (18 May)
11h20	18h20	The Role of Technology to Enable Market Access and Transparency How the IATA ACE will assist airlines to safely, cost effectively, and efficiently procure carbon offsets to meet CORSIA or voluntary offset requirements. <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Michael Schneider, Assistant Director Aviation Environment, IATA▪ Andy Bose, Head of Ecosystems and Partnerships, Xpansiv▪ Samuel Gill, Co-founder & COO, Sylvera
11h40	18h40	The Importance of Carbon Finance How offset projects can not only reduce emissions but also address many of the UN SDGs, benefiting local communities in developing countries. The viewpoint of the carbon offset project developer. <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Angela Foster-Rice, SVP Strategic Business Development, Everlands