

IATA Special Industry Notif 08 May 2018

Location Identifier changes: New airport in Istanbul, Turkey

This special industry notification is released to announce Location Identifier changes relating to airports in Istanbul, Turkey. Please take note of the following changes and proceed to update all relevant systems and stakeholders accordingly:

1. Istanbul New Airport, located in Istanbul, Turkey, will open to commercial operations on 31 October 2018. As of 31 October 2018, 00:00 UTC, location code IST will be reassigned to Istanbul New Airport.

| | |
|-------------------------------------|----------------------|
| New Location (Airport) Name: | Istanbul New Airport |
| Location Code Assigned: | IST |
| City: | Istanbul |
| State/Province/Country: | Turkey |

2. Istanbul Atatürk Airport (currently IST), located in Istanbul, Turkey, will be assigned a new code, ISL, on 31 October 2018 at 00:00 UTC to facilitate the migration of all commercial operations to Istanbul New Airport.

| | |
|---------------------------------|--------------------------|
| Location (Airport) Name: | Istanbul Ataturk Airport |
| Location Code Assigned: | ISL |
| City: | Istanbul |
| State/Province/Country: | Turkey |

3. A poll will be run following IATA Resolutions to reconfirm the Istanbul Metropolitan Area.

Regards,

Andreina Briceno

Assistant Manager, Coding Administration

IATA Global Delivery Center

bricenoa@iata.org