2017 in review - air freight volumes

+9%
2017 was the strongest year for air freight demand growth since 2010
+9% for the industry

This is more than 2x faster than global goods trade...
...and 3x faster than capacity

DEMAND GROWTH 9%
Freight load factor rose by 2.5 percentage points compared to 2016...
...which helped to drive increases in cargo yields

+2.5
A stronger global economy & the re-stocking cycle boosted air freight demand in 2017

Airlines in Asia Pacific flew 37% of global volumes in 2017

European airlines benefited from buoyant export demand for manufactured goods made in the region

+25%
African airlines posted the fastest growth in 2017

+25%
63%
of survey respondents expect freight volumes to increase in 2018

www.iata.org/economics