IATA CEIV- Accredited Independent Validators database

The IATA CEIV- Accredited Independent Validators database contains the list of the independent validators that have been trained by the IATA Center of Excellence for Independent Validators (CEIV). This database may not contain the exhaustive or current list of accredited EU independent validators. Users are therefore invited to consult the EU official website or the official website of the EU State sponsoring the validators.

While every reasonable effort is made to ensure that the information provided on the IATA CEIV- Accredited Independent Validators database is accurate, no guarantees for the currency or accuracy of information are made and the information is provided "as received".
